

Draft Vision Statement

Student Affairs actively cultivates a diverse, collaborative, and caring living-learning community where students thrive, belong, and are socially and intellectually engaged world citizens.

Innovation Teams

Student Affairs Professionals as Educators

Nicole Hill (Liaison)

- Given that much of the learning on a college campus occurs outside the classroom, this team will examine the ways in which Student Affairs professionals can contribute to that learning by creating and implementing rich co-curricular learning experiences.

Sam Bersola (F)

Charis Herzon

Sue Kettman

Sally Lester

Marlene Olson

Rosa Plaza

Flo Queen-Stover

Joan Walker

Creating Synergies Through Partnerships

Linda Rhoads (Liaison)

- To maximize our success and the success of our students, Student Affairs must partner with a number of divisions, units and external agencies. This innovation team is asked to offer thoughtful and creative partnerships that allow the division to best serve the needs of students. Examples include: internships and credit bearing experiences, service learning, civic engagement, learning communities, etc. These partnerships may also include opportunities for staff to engage in cross-training, internships and job-sharing.

Nicole Albaum

Rosie Cabrera

Karen Keen

Pam Hunt-Carter

Julie Beth Ingraham - student

Pablo Reguerin

Karen Rosewood

Mike Yamauchi-Gleason (F)

Creating a Caring Community

Linda Rhoads (Liaison)

- This innovation team is asked to consider the ways in which the division can create a sense of community for all students, as well as, demonstrate care for students. In particular, the team is asked to explore ways in which students experience this sense of community as a whole beyond the milieu of their individual "college" environment.

Nancy Bonilla

Fernando Corral

Grace Gallego

Martha Keeler

Drew Malloy

Deana Slater (F)

Emili Willett

Adrienne Waite

Student Empowerment Through Collaboration

Linda Rhoads (Liaison)

- This innovation team is asked to offer ways in which the student voice can be maximized through collaboration with faculty, staff and other student groups. Examples include student participation on university-wide committees, enhanced web presence, the effective use of student media and collaboration between clubs and organizations.

Thomas Aguirre (F)

Sayo Fujioka

Terri Jenkins

Joy Pehlke

Sheila Rodriguez

Victor Sanchez - Student

Silas Snyder

Joan Walker

Student Center

Elise Herrera-Mahoney (Liaison)

- This innovation team is asked to envision a sense of place that provides a connectedness to the campus, as well as, consider what critical spaces, programmatic functions and services the facility should encompass. The group should not focus on the design of the facility, but rather help identify the types of functions and services the building should offer.

Tere Alaniz

Ryan Andrews (F)

Margie Claxton

Matthew Mednick

Daniel Rola

Sue Roth

Linda Spradley

Student Involvement and Leadership Development

Lucy Rojas (Liaison)

- The team is asked to explore the ways in which Student Affairs can more effectively support student organizations and provide a comprehensive array of leadership development opportunities for students. You are asked to consider ways in which the University can cultivate leaders and assist them in developing a cadre of skills that will be useful throughout their lives.

Curt Anderson

Katrina Cope

Adrian Dorris

Cecile Morris

Lucy Rojas (F)

Jose Sanchez

Barbara Silverthorne

Adam Snook

Diversity

Lucy Rojas (Liaison)

- This innovation team is asked to offer creative strategies which demonstrate a divisional commitment to diversity in all its forms, paying particular attention to issues involving access, inclusion and outreach.

Gabriela Alaniz

Jane Bogart (F)

Kate Coburn

Holly Cordova

Linda Hart

Carrol Moran

Jose R. O. Lopez

Jennifer Reeves

Tam Welch

UCSC student cultureNicole Hill (Liaison)

- This innovation team is asked to harness its creative energy to consider ways in which the division can foster a sense of identity, tradition and belonging among our students. The group is asked to explore this topic using a broad campus-wide perspective, beyond the focus on the individual “college” experience.

Mike Kraus

Peggy Rose

Diane Lamotte

Ana Sanchez

Ebony Lewis (F)

Silas Snyder

Barbara Love

TechnologyElise Herrera-Mahoney (Liaison)

- This innovation team is asked to envision how technology can be utilized to enhance and support student engagement. The group is asked to consider the many uses of technology as a means to social networking, recreation, academic support and communication.

Ryan Francis

Michael McCawley

Rafael Granados (F)

Cameo Moore

Melody Litt

Rafael Valadez

Lois Locci